FREE WORKSHOP

Would you like to get a better understanding regarding the three-year property assessment roll? If you are a property owner or a lessee understanding the assessment roll is beneficial to you. All three SDCs of the Plateau, St-Laurent Boulevard, St-Denis Street and Mont-Royal Avenue have gathered to offer its members a free workshop for those who want to contest the roll or need to renew their commercial lease. This conference will take place on Tuesday, April 7th, 2020 from 6pm to 8pm. Snacks will be provided during the evening.

Here are some examples of topics that will be presented during the workshop:

- Definitions of different types of value: market value, actual value, registered value, assessed value;
- Methods used by municipal assessors in order to establish the actual value on a non-residential property or an income property.

If you want to take part in the workshop, contact us by replying to this email by Wednesday, April 1st.

YOUR CHANCE TO SHINE!

Don't miss out on the chance to increase your visibility to tons of tourists this year by purchasing an ad in the Guide Plateau Mont-Royal. Every year, St-Laurent Boulevard, St-Denis Street and Mont-Royal Avenue join forces to create a guide that represents the most dynamic territory of Montreal. This pamphlet is distributed in every hotel of the city, attracting the interest of several thousand of tourists each year. This opportunity will not only give you the chance to promote your business to a larger audience and proudly represent the Plateau-Mont-Royal borough and all it has to offer. Only four pages are available; first come, first served! See all prices and available spaces in the PDF below and contact us by email at info@sdbsl.ca if you are interested.
